We are located in the heart of London on the north side of the Thames and the neighbourhood of famous Covent Garden known for its shops, street performers, bars, restaurants, theatres and the Royal Opera House. Melbourne House is located next to Bush House, the BBC World Service headquarters, in the centre of Aldwych.

From Temple Tube (District and Circle Lines)

Turn left out of the station entrance, go up the steps and Arundel Street is opposite. Walk to the top of Arundel Street to the junction of Strand and Aldwych. At the traffic lights, cross over to the middle of the junction and then cross again left towards the front entrance of Australia House. Walk to the right of Australia House, onto Aldwych. The entrance of Melbourne House lays only a few metres after crossing Melbourne Place.

From London City Airport

Take the DLR (Docklands Light Railway) towards Bank and then either the Central Line west to Holborn (3 stops and is quickest) or walk to Monument Underground Station (4 minutes) to pick up a District Line train towards Wimbledon, Richmond or Ealing, or a Circle Line train towards Blackfriars and alight at Temple (4 stops). Total journey time should be no more than 45 minutes.

From Heathrow Airport

The Heathrow Express runs every 15 minutes and is 15 minutes to Paddington (7/8 minutes more from Terminal 4). From Paddington Underground Station take the Circle Line towards Embankment and alight at Temple (11 stops).

Alternatively, take the underground Piccadilly Line towards Cockfosters and alight at Holborn (22 stops). Total journey time should be just over 1 hour

From Gatwick Airport

The Gatwick Express runs every 15 minutes and takes 30 minutes to Victoria. From Victoria Underground Station take the Circle Line towards Embankment or the District Line towards Upminster, Barking or Dagenham East and alight at Temple (5 stops). Total journey time should be just over 1 hour.

From Stansted Airport

The Stansted Express runs every 15 minutes and is 46 minutes to Liverpool Street. From Liverpool Street Underground Station and take either the Central Line west to Holborn (4 stops and is quickest) or the Circle Line towards Monument and alight at Temple (7 stops).
